

Christmas & New Year 2011

BOOKING CONDITIONS

1. All reservations for both Christmas and New Year functions will be held as provisional for a period of no more than ten days pending the receipt of written confirmation and a non-refundable deposit of £10 per person.
2. Full payment of the balance is required five weeks prior to the date of the function. Any reservations which have not been confirmed by this date will be deemed to have cancelled and any deposit paid will be retained. Full pre-payment is also required for any accommodation bookings.
3. All reservations for the Christmas and New Year breaks will be held as provisional for a period of no more than ten days. A non-refundable deposit of 25% (of the total package price) is required within this ten day period, with the balance due six weeks prior to arrival.
4. In the event of any function or package having to be cancelled by the hotel, an alternative date or venue will be offered or a full refund given.
5. A cancellation charge of the amount received by the hotel or part thereof will be made in the event of all or part of the booking being amended or cancelled by the client.
6. The hotel reserves the right to alter or amend any of the contents and prices of the events or packages.
7. The prevailing party in any litigation under this agreement is entitled to recover their costs and expenses including reasonable legal fees.
8. If any invoiced sum due under this agreement remains due and owing for 28 days then the party to which the sum is owed will be entitled to recover their legal fees of £100.00 plus VAT or such higher amount as may be agreed or assessed by the court and any sum provided for under the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act.
